Description

Welcome to 278 Whispering Woods, a beautifully maintained split-foyer home situated on 2.16 private acres in Stoneybrook Estates. Move-in ready and thoughtfully cared for, this 3-bedroom, 2-bath home offers comfortable living spaces, inviting outdoor areas, and a peaceful setting surrounded by mature trees.

The main level features a bright, welcoming layout with plenty of natural light, along with all-new windows throughout the home. Step outside to enjoy the private screened-in porch and multiple deck areas, creating wonderful spaces for relaxing, entertaining, or simply enjoying the natural surroundings.

Downstairs, the spacious den is warm and cozy, offering a wonderful second living area that could serve as a private lounge, game room, media room, or casual gathering space. The basement benefits from conditioned air from the home's system, helping maintain a comfortable temperature consistent with the main living areas. A supplemental heater and humidifier operate automatically as needed to help maintain comfort and humidity levels.

Just off the finished basement area and garage is additional space that may offer potential for a future bathroom, giving the next owner added flexibility to expand the lower-level living space. Buyer and Buyer's Agent to verify feasibility for future improvements.

The garage has also received considerable attention, with insulation extending from the floor joists to the roof, along with drywall and extensive sealing to minimize gaps and help create a cleaner, more protected space. Two garage spaces provide convenient parking, storage, and workspace.

The 2.16-acre lot offers a comfortable sense of privacy and plenty of usable outdoor space. A paved driveway, well-maintained storage building, mature trees, screened porch, and multiple decks all add to the appeal of the property.

The owner is also willing to consider conveying the furniture in the home, or select pieces, with an acceptable offer.

With its move-in-ready condition, flexible living spaces, thoughtful improvements, generous acreage, and inviting indoor and outdoor areas, 278 Whispering Woods offers comfortable everyday living in a lovely Bluff City setting.
