Description

Historic

charm,

move-in-ready convenience!

This two-story 1930s traditional home in an excellent location sits on a nice, level lot in an established, walkable neighborhood just minutes from many local amenities and attractions.

With three spacious bedrooms and two full baths, the home offers comfort for everyday living as well as common areas ideal for relaxing and entertaining guests.

Throughout the home, you'll appreciate original details like hardwood flooring and wooden baseboards, doors, door frames, and window casings.

Beautiful french doors separate the entryway from the living room, enhancing this area's classic style, and a fireplace adds to its warmth and comfort.

The kitchen has been recently updated with modern fixtures and appliances, and features attractive flooring, a stylish backsplash, and an adjacent pantry. A formal dining room is ideal for everyday meals and hosting special occasions.

The large bedrooms are located upstairs for privacy, with a shared bathroom.

A detached carport ensures a covered parking area for protection from the weather.

This home is just a short drive from Dobyns-Bennett High School and J. Fred Johnson Stadium, downtown Kingsport, the Renaissance Center, Brickyard Park, the Riverview Splash Pad, the baseball fields at Domtar Park, and much more.

History buffs will enjoy the proximity to historic sites like Netherland Inn and Allandale Mansion, and outdoor enthusiasts will love traversing the nearby Greenbelt's walking and biking paths.

Set up your showing today to check out this charming, move-in-ready home!
