Description

A rare blend of pristine, untouched living and expansive country freedom awaits in Southwest Virginia. Tucked away in a peaceful setting just minutes from Gate City, Virginia, and a short drive to Kingsport, Tennessee, this property offers the absolute best of rural privacy and Tri-Cities convenience. This home sits at the foothills of the Appalachian Mountains on a generous double lot and welcomes you with a truly impressive covered front porch perfect for outdoor relaxation. Every inch of the 3-bedroom, 2-bathroom interior is completely brand new and has never been lived in. Meticulously built from the foundation up, the home delivers the modern efficiency and pristine finish of a new build with zero wear. The heart of the home features a bright, open layout anchored by a kitchen with granite countertops. The floor plan maximizes daily functionality with a designated laundry room and provides ultimate utility flexibility with access to both well and public water. As an bonus to the main residence, the property includes a separate site equipped with its own independent septic system. This secondary space serves as an ideal setup for camper parking, a future guest house, or a second home seat for extended family. Schedule your private tour today to experience this untouched property in person and explore the endless potential of this double lot. Note: Granite countertops are scheduled for installation. The current kitchen photos have been digitally staged to accurately illustrate the completed space once the countertops are in place.
