Description

Welcome to 132 Joan Ann Drive! Tucked away at the end of a quiet cul-de-sac, this meticulously cared-for 3-bedroom raised ranch offers exceptional storage, garage space, and outdoor living, all just approximately 10 minutes from the heart of Elizabethton!

The home has been well maintained and features an architectural shingle roof, updated vinyl windows, updated vinyl siding, and a full unfinished basement offering an abundance of storage space with excellent potential for future finished square footage.
One of the standout features of this property is the incredible amount of garage and parking space. In addition to the one-car drive-under garage the property features a HUGE 25' x 32' detached garage, perfect for additional vehicles, a workshop, hobbies, lawn equipment, recreational toys, or simply extra storage.
Outside, you'll love the oversized covered back porch spanning the length of the home, providing a fantastic space for relaxing, grilling, and entertaining in nearly any weather. There is also a covered front porch, plus both the front and back yards are fully fenced.
Additional highlights include a septic system that was pumped last year and the benefit of low county-only property taxes. Situated in a well-kept neighborhood at the end of a cul-de-sac while still offering convenient access to Elizabethton, this home combines a peaceful setting with everyday convenience.
