Description

Start your day watching the sunrise over the mountains from the back deck, then return in the evening as the moon rises above the ridgelines. The views stretch across Tennessee, North Carolina, and Virginia and are among the best in the Tri-

Cities region. The enormous upper deck feels like a second living space, with two propane gas lines ready to fuel a grill and fire pit. This eight year old custom brick and stone home sits on a quiet cul-de-sac between Boones Creek and Gray, approximately 15 minutes from downtown Johnson City and 20 minutes from Kingsport.

Designed for main level living, the open floor plan features light filled rooms, 10 foot ceilings, and an 18 foot cathedral ceiling over the family room and kitchen. The split bedroom layout places the primary suite, with its 14 foot tray ceiling, on one side of the home and two additional bedrooms with a Jack-and-Jill bath on the other. A huge pantry and abundant storage make the space as practical as it is beautiful.

The finished lower level has 11 foot ceilings, a second kitchen, a full bath convenient to the pool, and a spacious room with two closets that could serve as a guest suite or a home office. Step out to the patio and well maintained saltwater pool, where the mountain views remain the centerpiece.

Custom details include crown molding throughout the home, a hybrid furnace and heat pump, and hardwood or ceramic tile floors throughout. An irrigation system serves the entire yard and landscaping. Enjoy a peaceful setting with county taxes, just 10 minutes from the airport.
