kitchen cabinets, and appliances that are approximately two years old. A stackable washer and dryer add convenience and make great use of the space.

Outside, you'll find a 700-square-foot detached garage, providing plenty of room for vehicles, a workshop, hobbies, or additional storage. The concrete driveway offers easy access and ample parking. The property also has two propane hookups--one located in the garage and another in the living room--along with a designated area in the yard for a propane tank.

Enjoy the peace and privacy of country living while still having plenty of possibilities for the future. The property offers room to expand the existing home or add additional outdoor improvements.
