Description

Welcome to beautiful rural Hawkins County in East Tennessee. This unrestricted property offers approximately 65.35 +/- acres with no zoning, low taxes, good road frontage, and a wide variety of terrain.
The property begins with cleared pasture at the bottom and features a bold, year-round creek running through the lower portion of the property. The pasture area offers excellent potential for horses, cattle, or other agricultural use. The property is fenced, and there are currently cattle on the property. The seller states there is also an artesian well located in the pasture area; however, the seller makes no representation as to its current condition or operation.

There is a shared right-of-way/driveway serving the double-wide located to the right of the property, and this right-of-way will remain in place. If you do not wish to use the shared driveway as your main entrance, the property also offers plenty
