Description

Welcome to your private piece of East Tennessee paradise! Situated on 5.8 quiet, rolling acres in Elizabethton, complete with a serene creek running along the back, this 1,736 square foot home delivers the ideal mix of major functional upgrades, usable land, and true country freedom. The setting provides total flexibility for a mini farm, homesteading, outbuildings, or livestock with natural water right on site. The exterior boasts exceptional curb appeal with a covered full length front porch, durable metal roof, stone accented foundation, and a detached storage building. Out back, an expansive elevated back deck spans the rear of the home, offering the ultimate setup for outdoor dining, grilling, and taking in views of your deep, level yard and surrounding tree line. Inside, the home features a light filled open concept living and dining area highlighted by warm wood accents, exposed beams, and low maintenance LifeProof luxury vinyl plank flooring throughout the main areas. The open kitchen comes equipped with stainless steel appliances, smooth granite countertops, and generous cabinet storage. Key mechanical updates provide complete peace of mind: new electrical, new PEX plumbing, and a late model HVAC system for reliable year round efficiency.
