Whether you dream of building a private homestead, creating a weekend retreat, owning a hunting property, or making a long-term land investment, this expansive property offers endless possibilities. A special highlight of this beautiful acreage is Pigeon Creek flowing through the property, adding natural charm. With multiple potential building sites and plenty of room to explore, this property provides an opportunity to create your own private sanctuary away from the hustle and bustle of everyday life. This 140.5 acres are located on both sides of Hendry Hollow Lane. This property offers the peace and quiet of country living in an area with a small number of established homes. Currently, only four families have beautiful homes and barns along Hendry Hollow Lane, creating a quiet, rural setting with a sense of privacy and seclusion. The original owners made this land their home and farm, with a residence and two barns once situated on the property. Electricity poles follow the paved road and extend onto the property near the location of the former home and their well was in front of the house offering a potential starting point for future development. Beyond the potential for building, this expansive acreage offers plenty of room for outdoor recreation and adventure. Imagine enjoying ATV riding, hiking, hunting, camping, and exploring your own private stretch of East Tennessee countryside. Whether you envision a secluded country estate, a recreational getaway, a family retreat, or a property to hold for future investment, the possibilities are abundant. Adding to the appeal, Mammoth Ridge RV Park and Campground is on Lonesome Pine Trail which turns into Hendry Hollow Lane, where hundreds of families enjoy the campsites, pond, and surrounding grounds. This neighboring recreational destination adds another point of interest to the area's rural setting. In driving to Hendry Hollow Lane you will enjoy all the beautiful farms, there is a Pumpkin Patch and Churches. Just wonderful country living and settings. Large tracts of land offering this combination of acreage, natural beauty, privacy, a flowing creek, springs and potential building opportunities are worth exploring.
