Description

Tucked away as one of only six townhomes on this property overlooking Watauga Lake, this 2-bedroom, 3-bath home puts the long-range lake and mountain views front and center, and the sunsets are unreal. Low maintenance lake property in the Appalachian Mountains. The open-concept kitchen with an upgraded stainless steel appliance package flows into the great room, with a decorative fireplace and uninterrupted views of the water through the double French doors. Oak hardwood floors throughout. Two en suite bedrooms, including a primary suite with a jetted tub and walk-in closet, plus a half bath and storage room at the entry. Two decks, one off the main living area and one off the primary bedroom, meaning morning coffee and evening sunsets are always on the water.

The peace-of-mind upgrades you don't see: a new vapor barrier under all units, double-pane windows, and a washer and ventless dryer that convey. Rustic exterior with Tennessee fieldstone accents, professional landscaping, and a paved circle drive.

Watauga Lake is the highest-elevation lake in the TVA system, more than 6,000 acres of deep blue water. The mountains you're looking at across the lake are the Cherokee National Forest. Boating, fishing, paddling, and the Appalachian Trail are right at your doorstep. Approximately 0.4 miles away, Johnson County's new $4.2 million Sink Mountain boat ramp offers public access to the lake, with parking for trucks and trailers. Boone and Sugar Mountain is a short drive away for top notch skiing and Bristol Motor Speedway is a little over an hour away.
