Description

Perfectly positioned near the highly traveled intersection of US-19E and US-321, this 1.2-acre level parcel presents an exceptional opportunity for investors, developers, and business owners alike.

US-19E provides convenient connectivity to Elizabethton, Johnson City, and the North Carolina state line, while US-321 connects travelers to Watauga Lake, Boone, NC, and the surrounding High Country. With over 23,000 vehicles traveling through the US-19E and US-321 corridor daily, this property offers excellent visibility and accessibility in a strategic location.

Featuring B-3 zoning, this versatile property offers a wide range of potential uses, including commercial, residential, and multifamily development, subject to applicable zoning regulations and approvals. Whether you're envisioning a retail storefront, professional office, residential development, or income-producing investment, this property offers the flexibility to bring your vision to life.

Level acreage, high traffic counts, and a strategic location make this an exceptional investment opportunity in East Tennessee! Lot lines depicted in listing photos are approximate and for illustrative purposes only.
