Description

48HR FIRST RIGHT OF REFUSAL IN PLACE This home has the kind of space that is easy to appreciate. Just over three years old and exceptionally well maintained, this home offers a floorplan that is unique within the neighborhood, with generously sized rooms and plenty of space for everyone to spread out.

The main level has a welcoming living room with a comfortable connection to the eat-in kitchen and dining areas, along with an office, dedicated laundry room, half bath, and a walk-in pantry that provides the storage you actually want in a home like this. Fresh paint and ceiling fans throughout give the home a clean, comfortable feel without making it feel overly new or staged.

Upstairs, the primary suite is especially spacious, with plenty of room for a sitting area or reading nook, along with a large bath featuring both a garden tub and separate shower, plus a walk-in closet. Three additional bedrooms give everyone their own space, while the upstairs loft adds another flexible area for a den, playroom, TV lounge, or just a place to hang out away from the main living room. With four bedrooms, 2 1/2 baths, an office, and multiple living areas, there is room here for both everyday life and the occasional full house.

Outside, the covered front porch creates a nice place to sit and enjoy the neighborhood, while the level yard is easy to maintain. The neighborhood itself is walkable and convenient, putting everyday necessities and the places you frequent within easy reach. For a relatively new home, the combination of space, thoughtful layout, and the fact that there simply isn't another floorplan like it here makes this one stand out. Adding to the appeal, most furnishings and décor are also negotiable in the sale. Schedule your own tour to see how this home could fit your needs.
