Description

Historic Greek Revival Mansion, home of the legendary Carter Family for over 200 years! Former Carter At Main Restaurant. Meticulously restored with 6,000+/- sq ft, with soaring 12-ft ceilings, original heart pine floors, and an open foyer highlighted by a stunning original staircase. Gracious living room features a fireplace with a rare mantel reportedly displayed at the World's Fair in the 1960s, complemented by an elegant parlor and a charming library with custom built-ins. 4 bedrooms, with a potential for 6, a spacious office, 2 full baths: one with beautiful copper tub another w/oversized shower plus 3 half baths. Private owner's kitchen and a fully equipped commercial kitchen with a large prep room and walk-in cooler or freezer. Plantation blinds, exquisite trim and woodwork, spacious laundry room and a distinctive mural depicting historic downtown landmarks. Outdoor living is equally as impressive with 3 upper & lower covered patios, well display, outdoor fireplace, outdoor bar, a gorgeous 24ft octagonal gazebo, pond made from stone found on the grounds, original well displayed all on 1.06 ac+/-. Metal roof and handcrafted wrought iron details add even more character to this remarkable estate. Possibilities are endless, whether a magnificent private residence, elegant bed-and-breakfast, boutique inn, short-term rental or spectacular wedding and special events venue (subject to applicable approvals). Formerly known as the Carter At Main Restaurant, Don't miss this chance to own a magnificent piece of Elizabethton's history. Seller may consider partial owner financing for qualified Buyer. Seller may consider leasing for $8,000 per month.
