Description

400 Noes Chapel Road brings together timeless design, comfortable spaces, and a layout made for everyday living. Offering 4 bedrooms and 2.5 baths, the home centers around a spacious open kitchen, dining, and living area where each space flows naturally into the next. Whether gathering around the table, entertaining friends, or enjoying a quiet evening at home, the layout provides plenty of room to make the space your own. Thoughtfully selected finishes throughout give the interior a polished yet welcoming feel. The primary suite offers a comfortable retreat, complete with a uniquely designed closet providing generous storage and organization. Three additional bedrooms add versatility for family, overnight guests, a home office, or additional flex space. The living area opens directly onto the back deck, creating an easy transition outdoors and another space to enjoy the home. Add comfortable seating, an outdoor dining area, or a grill and create the perfect setting for morning coffee, weekend gatherings, or relaxing in the evening. Iron fencing adds both function and a finished architectural touch to the outdoor space. Located on Noes Chapel Road, the home keeps you within minutes of Morristown's shopping, dining, schools, medical facilities, and everyday conveniences. With four bedrooms, an open and inviting layout, thoughtful storage, outdoor living space, and a move-in-ready interior, 400 Noes Chapel Road offers a home designed to be enjoyed from day one. An annual maintenance fee of $275 will apply toward future planned amenities.
