Located on a quiet dead end street, as you're standing on the covered front porch, you will be able to take in the countryside and gorgeous mountain views. You may even see a deer on property or in the pasture across the street. You also have the option to have your very own raised bed vegetable or flower garden already prepared at your front door. Step into the foyer where you will see the spacious great room, kitchen and dining combo, granite countertops, where everyone stays connected whether you're hosting friends or just enjoying a quiet evening at home. French doors lead to an inviting and relaxing screen-in back deck. The primary bedroom is thoughtfully tucked away for privacy and features tray ceilings, walk in closet, large master bath with double sink, separate soaking tub and shower. There are two additional bedrooms on the main level and a full bath offering convenience for both family and guest. There are no steps leading into the kitchen from the garage or the front door. The two-car garage is suitable for a workshop with lots of storage space. The recently finished walk-out basement includes a bedroom, full bathroom with smart lighting and music, multi-use living areas with endless possibilities such as a family room, media room, office, craft/sewing room, man cave, game room, and lots of storage space.
