Description

Charming, move-in-ready, all-brick home on 1.21 acres with county taxes only, conveniently located just one mile from historic downtown Jonesborough, Tennessee, the state's oldest town. This well-maintained 3-bedroom, 2-bath all-brick home offers a spacious lot, beautiful hardwood floors, and numerous updates throughout the last several years. The home also features a large, heated and cooled sunroom with roll-open windows, providing a wonderful space to relax and enjoy views of the property throughout the seasons. The hardwood floors are in excellent condition, complemented by tile flooring installed in 2016. Additional improvements include a roof with architectural shingles (approximately 2015), replacement windows, a heat pump (2017), updated bathroom fixtures and lighting (2016), a new garage door and front entry door (2017), an updated plumbing system, and a vapor barrier in the crawl space. A security system was added in 2018.

Situated on 1.21 level acres, the property features several mature shade trees, plenty of outdoor space to enjoy, and a small stream along the back of the property. A spacious 24' x 16' storage building provides additional room for tools, equipment, hobbies, or outdoor storage. Enjoy the peaceful feel of a larger lot with county taxes only and no city taxes, while remaining just minutes from shopping, local retailers, hospitals, and the conveniences of Jonesborough and the surrounding Tri-Cities area. This property offers a wonderful combination of space, updates, and a convenient location!
