Description

Back on the market at no fault of the seller! Unique Property with Multi-Generational Living and Investment Potential in Greeneville!
Listed as both Residential and Multi-Family due to its versatile layout and potential uses, this property offers spacious main-level living, upper-level living quarters with a separate exterior entrance, and a partially converted detached studio.
The main level features an exceptionally spacious primary suite with an ensuite bath offering double vanities, a walk-in shower, soaking tub, walk-in closet, and adjoining bonus/laundry room. Additional spaces include a kitchen with granite countertops and distressed cabinetry, dining room, informal living room, mud/laundry room, and an exceptionally spacious living room/den with potential to be converted into a second main-level bedroom.
Upstairs offers two bedrooms (currently connected by an interior doorway), a secondary kitchen area equipped with a small electric cooktop, sink, countertop, cabinetry, and space for a refrigerator, along with a living room, full bathroom, and exterior access with a balcony and terrace. The upper level is currently connected to the main level by an interior staircase but offers potential for separate living quarters with modifications.
A large detached building behind the home has been partially converted into a studio-style space, with water, sewer, and electricity already connected. A permanent heating and cooling system and any additional improvements required for residential occupancy would need to be completed.
Outside, you'll find a covered front porch, spacious back patio with an outdoor fireplace, attractive landscaping, detached two-car garage, and an additional shed/chicken coop. The home has received several updates, including a new heat pump in 2026. Previous listings also indicate a newer metal roof and updated wiring and plumbing.
Conveniently located in Greeneville, the property offers a beautiful setting with easy access to local amenities. Some noise from a nearby industrial facility may be noticeable.
With its flexible layout and multiple living spaces, this property presents an opportunity for multi-generational living or potential rental income with modifications.
