Description

Space to spread out, mountain views, and endless possibilities! Situated on 2.68 acres of usable, mostly level to gently rolling land, this spacious brick ranch offers over 2,200 square feet of single-level living, an additional 2,200 square feet of unfinished basement space, and an impressive barn, all surrounded by beautiful mountain scenery.

Inside, you'll find 4 bedrooms, 3 full bathrooms, and plenty of room to gather. The formal living room and den both feature a fireplace, one of which has been converted to propane gas. A spacious kitchen and dining area, generous laundry room, and a bathroom with a jetted tub add to the home's everyday comfort and convenience.

The large walkout basement provides additional garage parking, abundant storage, and plenty of potential for future finished living space. Already equipped with plumbing rough-ins for a toilet and sink, along with heating and cooling ductwork, this versatile area offers opportunities to expand as your needs change.

Outside, the possibilities really open up! The 43' x 44' barn features electricity, oversized doors, a concrete floor, and a large overhead loft, making it ideal for a workshop, equipment storage, hobbies, or recreational vehicles.

The two-car carport provides additional covered parking and a sheltered seating area, while the rear patio offers another place to relax and enjoy the surroundings. Mature trees and established perennial gardens add character to the property, with flowers blooming at different times throughout the year.

Recent improvements include a new roof and gas furnace within the past two years, along with dishwasher and built-in microwave approximately 2-3 years old. With public water, beautiful mountain scenery, usable acreage, and exceptional storage and workshop space, this property offers a wonderful combination of comfort, functionality, and room to make it your own!
