Description

Classic finishes, thoughtful details, and room to make it your own--this Bristol condo offers three levels of comfortable living in a convenient location. The open main living area creates an inviting setting for everyday life and gathering with friends, with hardwood floors adding warmth and character throughout the upper two levels. The kitchen features cherry cabinetry, newer stainless steel appliances, and an additional bank of cabinets for extra storage and serving space. Two bedrooms and two full baths occupy the upper level, with custom molding in the nursery adding a charming, personal touch. On the lower level, a flexible finished space offers options for an office, bonus room, or potential third bedroom. You'll love the updated laundry space that includes a Whirlpool washer and dryer with the half bath on the main level. Step outside to enjoy a quiet moment on the deck, or take advantage of the garage's practical features, including a coated floor and hot-water hookup for washing vehicles. Additional parking at the front and rear provides space for guests. With easy access to shopping, dining, and Bristol's local attractions, 225 Amanda Lane, Unit 3 brings together comfortable living, useful storage, and the flexibility to suit your everyday routine.
