Description

1703 Knoll Dr is a 3-bedroom, 2-bath brick ranch in the Skyline Heights neighborhood of Johnson City, with a view that stretches across the backyard to the distant ridgeline. Hardwood floors run through the main-level living room, dining area, and bedrooms. The kitchen has granite countertops, wood cabinetry, stainless steel appliances, and tile flooring, with counter space on both sides and a window over the sink. Two windows bring natural light to the dining area just off the kitchen.

One full bath serves the 3 bedrooms on the main level. The lower-level den gives you a second place to unwind, with room for a TV setup or hobbies. A brick accent wall separates the den from a sunroom with windows along the backyard and French doors that open outside. The lower level also includes a full bath, laundry area, closet, and an attached one-car garage with shelving and workbench space. One might consider using this level for multi-generational living with the full bathroom, a walk-in closet, and the separate entrance, which is coveted in so many situations. The garage runs the length of the house, leaving plenty of room for a vehicle and additional storage. The deck has room for a table under cover and seating in the sun. Steps lead down to the backyard, where an open stretch of lawn gives you room for a garden or yard games. The shed does convey and provides additional storage for lawn equipment.
