Description

Convenience, comfort, and low-maintenance living await at 108 Copper Court!

Welcome to this charming 2-bedroom, 2.5-bath home nestled in the Copper Hill community of Johnson City! Offering approximately 1,160 square feet of living space, this home combines a functional layout with a convenient location just minutes from everything Johnson City has to offer.

Inside, you'll find two generously sized bedrooms, each featuring its own private full bathroom, providing an ideal arrangement for both everyday living and overnight guests. The spacious primary bedroom also features a walk-in closet, while a conveniently located half bath on the main level adds extra functionality.

Step outside and enjoy your own patio, perfect for morning coffee, grilling, or simply unwinding after a long day. The home also features an attached one-car garage, providing convenient parking and additional storage space. With lawn maintenance included in the association fee, you can spend less time worrying about yard work and more time enjoying your home!

Located just off Austin Springs Road, this property offers convenient access to Bristol Highway, Boone Lake, Winged Deer Park, ETSU, shopping, dining, and more.

Whether you're looking for your first home, considering downsizing, or simply searching for a low-maintenance lifestyle in a convenient location, 108 Copper Court is one you'll want to see!
