Description

Long-range views, wide-open living, and thoughtful architectural details! Welcome to 348 Providence Road in Telford, where just over three quarters of an acre of gently rolling land offers room to enjoy the peaceful beauty of Northeast

Tennessee. Meticulously maintained by its owners, this single-level home combines comfort and character. Coffered ceilings, rounded entryways, and rounded sheetrock corners add distinctive touches, while consistent flooring throughout creates a cohesive flow from room to room. The spacious, open-concept layout connects the kitchen, dining, and living areas, providing an inviting setting for everyday living and entertaining. Three bedrooms plus a separate office space offer flexibility for working from home, hobbies, or a quiet retreat. The kitchen features a very generous pantry with versatile shelving that can be adjusted to meet your specific storage needs--perfect for organizing groceries, small appliances, and kitchen essentials. Your choice of propane or electric stove hookup adds convenience, with a buried 250-gallon propane tank already in place. All major kitchen appliances convey, making your move that much easier. A three-car garage provides generous space for vehicles, tools, and storage. An additional shed with electricity also conveys, offering possibilities for a workshop, gardening supplies, or your next project. Outside, the owners have taken special care to maintain beautifully landscaped grounds that stand out for their quality and attention to detail, complemented by an irrigation system. The nearly acre-sized, flat yard provides usable space for gardening, outdoor gatherings, or simply relaxing and enjoying the long-range views. The owners' attention to maintenance extends beyond appearances. The septic tank has already been pumped, with less than a year of use since that service, and the heating and air-conditioning system has been serviced to support maximum operating efficiency. The home security system also conveys; new owners will be responsible for the subscription cost to continue service. Enjoy a peaceful and beautiful corner of the Tri-Cities with convenient access to surrounding communities and quick access to Tri-Cities Regional Airport. With distinctive interior details, easy one-level living, ample garage space, and a scenic setting, this thoughtfully cared-for Telford home offers comfort, practicality, and room to breathe. Schedule your showing and experience it for yourself - this is not a home to be missed! All information deemed reliable. Buyer / buyer's information to verify all information. (2148R/3455S)
