Description

This 1920s Craftsman-style home offers a warm, welcoming atmosphere. It sits just a few blocks from Historic Downtown Rogersville and across from a beautiful park, offering a picturesque backdrop for your gatherings. It is ideal for a permanent residence, hospitality, or the perfect combination of both. Boasting a second dwelling that provides the perfect event space for all your holiday gatherings and parties. Exuding its elegance and detailed charm, it also boasts many fine updates.
As you enter the home, you will notice the hardwood floors, woodworking details, and doors with original hardware. Period chandeliers complement the 12-foot ceilings. Loads of natural light streams in from the abundant windows and door transoms.

Gather with guests or cozy up with family around the gas fireplace. Serve all your friends and family in the formal dining room that seats 16. The kitchen has been completely updated with beautiful solid wood cabinets, and past the butler's pantry you will find a smaller breakfast area as well. At the back of the home is an enclosed sun porch for more casual living space. Upstairs, you will find additional living space and bedrooms. Gleaming hardwood floors, woodwork, and doors abound on this level as well.
Back downstairs to the finished basement, where there is a second fireplace(gas log only), full kitchen, pool table, laundry.
Outside, you will find a full outdoor kitchen, with a built-in smoker. Enjoy the 12ft wide covered front porch. The backyard has a brand new privacy fence.
This home has been lovingly maintained and restored over the years with new wiring and plumbing, a 30 year roof, and a brand new AC/Furnace. Tile in the laundry area is a special tile from Germany.
Convenient to all East Tennessee has to offer, with just a 45 minute drive to the Tri Cities, Morristown, Greeneville
