Description

If you are dreaming of your own creekside retreat without being in a flood zone and are willing to put some sweat equity into that dream becoming a reality, this one definitely deserves a look. This farmhouse is being sold as-is and will need some TLC, it has great bones and is priced well below the most recent tax appraisal. This property contains 1.75 acres which was surveyed off the original 3.50 acre tract and roughly 400 foot of road frontage. There are two bedrooms, one full bath, kitchen, dining and living area on the main level. There are 2 additional rooms upstairs. The electricity and water have been disconnected so please bring a flashlight if viewing late in the day. Cash or Conventional financing only.
