Description

This beautiful home has been completely renovated from the first floor to the basement, blending modern updates with charming farmhouse and rustic-cabin character. The exterior features an amazing front porch accented with substantial timber beams, creating a warm and inviting first impression. Enjoy the open, uncovered back porch, a brand-new metal roof, and a beautiful, flat level yard. Inside, the kitchen showcases a farmhouse sink, ceramic tile flooring, and a butcher-block countertop, adding both charm and functionality. Hardwood floors flow throughout much of the home, while the bedrooms feature luxury vinyl plank flooring. The home offers two completely renovated full bathrooms with modern updates throughout. The finished basement provides additional living space that could be potentially additional bedroom, home office, or recreational space. With extensive renovations, modern finishes, inviting outdoor space, this property offers a wonderful combination of comfort, character, and versatility. This property is perfectly situated, offering convenient access to shopping, dining, and other amenities just minutes away with easy access to Exit 14 to I-81. There's also an exciting opportunity to purchase the adjoining parcel of land, allowing you to expand your yard, create additional outdoor space, or explore the possibility of building another home. With a move-in-ready home in a well-established, desirable neighborhood, this property offers both convenience and future potential.
