Description

Endless possibilities on 17+ acres along scenic Highway 173 in Hampton, Tennessee! With three structures on the property, this one of a kind setting is ready for multi-generational living, a single-family retreat, or a business venture. The main structure offers 2,400 sq ft: the 1,200 sq ft lower level is currently used as a garage and offers great potential for conversion to additional living space, while the upper level features a 1,200 sq ft apartment. Two additional structures give the new owner a wide array of options for workshop, storage, or income use. Relax on the front porch swing and enjoy the peaceful sound of Simerly Creek. The property is currently served by three springs, with city water available at the street. Approximately 1,300+ feet of road frontage and multiple potential home sites make this the perfect place to build your mountain dream home. Opportunities like this don't come along often. Schedule your private tour today!
