Description

This 49-acre property offers a beautiful combination of open pasture, farmland, and scenic East Tennessee mountain views. With mostly cleared, gently rolling acreage and approximately 2,800 feet of combined road frontage along Ferd Henley Road and Old State Route, the property offers space and flexibility for a working farm, livestock, horses, or a private country estate.

The property includes a 1994 manufactured home featuring approximately 1,890 square feet, 3 bedrooms, and 2 bathrooms. A covered porch overlooks the surrounding countryside, and the home is served by a private well and septic system. A barn and additional outbuildings provide space for agricultural use, equipment, and storage. The home and all improvements are being sold as-is.

Currently enrolled in Greenbelt status, this property presents an opportunity to own a substantial tract of East Tennessee acreage with scenic views, extensive road frontage, and a variety of potential uses.
