Description

Discover the potential of this beautiful wooded property featuring a gently sloping to level landscape, offering a blend of natural privacy and elevated views. With approximately 13 acres, this property provides plenty of room for your vision, whether you're planning a private homesite or a peaceful retreat.

The back parcel has no restrictions, while the portion subject to city regulations is lightly restricted and allows a double-wide manufactured home of over 800 square feet. Property boundaries and acreage are approximate and subject to survey and approval by county officials. Buyers should verify zoning, permitted uses, access, utilities, and all applicable requirements with the appropriate local authorities.

If you're looking for acreage with flexibility and potential, this property is worth exploring!
