Description

Room to spread out, room to gather, and room to unwind. This two bedroom, two bath home has a layout that works for everyday life and for having people over, with low county-only taxes to keep it comfortable for the long haul.

The main level has a large dining room, a great room for relaxing, and a bright sunroom that opens to a big deck. The primary bedroom is a true retreat, with a large private bath and a walk-in closet. A second bedroom and full bath complete the main living space.

Downstairs, the finished basement adds a rec room and a patio just outside, plus a large laundry room with a utility sink. The washer and dryer stay. You'll also find a one car drive under garage with a storage area, and even more storage tucked beneath the sunroom.

The big updates are already done. The roof is new in 2026, the ceilings were freshly painted in 2026, and the furnace was replaced in 2026 as well. The AC was replaced in 2024, additional attic insulation was added in 2022, and all the windows were replaced in 2019. A radon mitigation system is already in place, so you can move in with real peace of mind.

Outside, the two year old hot tub conveys and has been professionally drained and closed for winter, so it's ready for you when you are. The shed in the back conveys too, and two driveways mean plenty of parking for family and friends.

The location is a real bonus. You're convenient to Johnson City, Elizabethton, and Unicoi/Erwin, and only a short drive from ETSU, the Tweetsie Trail, and downtown Johnson City. Whether it's a morning walk on the trail or dinner downtown, everything is close.

Picture a cool East Tennessee evening, a soak in the hot tub, and not a single thing left to do but enjoy it. Come see what 132 Bishop Road has waiting for you.
