Description

This 358 ± acre Lee County timber tract in Keokee, Virginia offers a solid recreational and investment opportunity in the mountains of Southwest Virginia.

The property is well watered with frontage on both Rock Harbor Branch and the North Fork of the Powell River. An established internal road system provides easy access throughout much of the property.

The terrain varies from wooded slopes and ridgelines to creek bottoms, supporting excellent habitat for whitetail deer, turkey, black bear, and other native wildlife.

Whether you are looking for a hunting retreat, ATV riding, or a private off grid cabin or homestead site, this property has the space, water, and infrastructure to make it happen. The property carries a mining history and the mineral rights convey with the sale.

Conveniently located approximately 15 minutes from Pennington Gap, 30 minutes from Duffield, and one hour from Kingsport, Tennessee.
