Description

Exceptionally clean, beautifully maintained & modernized, and in a super convenient location! Welcome to 255 Hunter Hills Circle, Unit #2, where approximately 20 years of loving care by the same owners is evident from the moment you step inside. Offering two bedrooms, two full bathrooms, one half bath, and a completely finished basement currently used as a third bedroom, this home combines comfortable living with versatile space to fit your needs. The kitchen features stainless steel appliances, including a refrigerator and dishwasher approximately two years old. LVP flooring in portions of the home adds to its appeal, while numerous storage closets provide practical everyday convenience. The former main-level laundry room currently serves as an office, with hookups still in place for an easy conversion back. The finished basement offers plenty of possibilities as a third bedroom, game room, recreation area, or additional family room. A roomy garage with a newer garage door, leaf guards on the gutters, and a roof approximately eight years old round out the features. With NO HOA, a super convenient location, and an exceptional level of cleanliness and care, this charming home is one you'll want to see in person!
