Description

Fixer-upper, investment property, renovation project, and value-add opportunity! Bring your vision to this charming site-built cottage offering approximately 875 square feet, 2 bedrooms, 1 bathroom, and a functional floor plan. This property is ideal for investors, house flippers, contractors, or buyers looking for an affordable home renovation project with potential to build equity.

The exterior offers appealing curb appeal with attractive stone accents, vinyl siding, a covered front porch, patio area, large storage building, a cellar, and covered parking.This property offers outdoor space and potential for improvement.

The interior requires renovation. Carpet has already been removed. A noticeable pet urine odor is present, and odor remediation and possible subfloor treatment or replacement may be needed. Buyers should factor the condition and renovation costs into their plans.

Conveniently located near downtown Rogersville, local shopping, restaurants, schools, and everyday services, this property offers easy access to town amenities. Whether you're looking for a fix-and-flip opportunity, rental investment, starter home renovation, contractor special, or sweat-equity project, this property offers a chance to transform a small home into something special.

Property is being sold as-is. Bring your contractor, explore the possibilities, and make this renovation opportunity your next project!
