Description

This three-bedroom, one-bath brick ranch sits on 11.6 acres in Mountain City with mountain views, open land, and woods. Approximately five acres are open field, with space for farming, gardening, or a possible additional homesite, subject to applicable approvals. A pond with koi and goldfish sits along the woodline, and an existing road leads through the wooded portion to the top of the property, providing access for hunting and recreation.

Three outbuildings include a garage with a concrete floor and workbenches, a second garage with a dirt/gravel floor and roll-up door, and an older wooden building for dry storage.

Built in 1968, the home features hardwood floors throughout the living room and bedrooms, a kitchen with ample cabinet space, and an adjoining dining area with sliding doors leading outside. An attached garage and paved driveway provide convenient parking, while the large covered porch offers space to sit and enjoy the mountain views. with an updated metal roof. The full basement provides additional storage and includes one partially finished room that could be completed as an office or hobby room. A property with room for a small farm, outdoor recreation, and workshop space, all in one place.

Property is being sold as-is.
