Description

If you're looking for mountain views with lots of space and potential, this property is for you! This fixer farmhouse on 20 acres is waiting for someone who loves the land to make it shine again. Located just 10 minutes from Watauga Lake in Butler.

The house on the property was built in 1900 and has two stories. The second floor still needs some flooring. The tool shed on the property already has electricity, so it's perfect for a workshop. The barn was built in 1937. The expansive property features mountain views, cleared spaces and trees, two springs, and an advantageous location near Cove Springs Marina.

Property is being sold "As is". Interior pictures coming soon. Buyer/Buyer's agent to verify information.
