Natural light fills the kitchen and family room, where freshly painted paneling in bright, neutral colors creates a welcoming atmosphere. The family room features hardwood floors, built-in shelving, and an electric fireplace. Updated lighting and ceiling fans add a fresh touch to the family room, kitchen, and dining area. The kitchen offers generous counter space, abundant cabinetry, and a laundry area with a washer and dryer. The adjacent dining area provides a comfortable setting for everyday meals and access to the side exterior door. All three bedrooms feature hardwood floors and original paneling, preserving the home's 1970 character. The primary bedroom includes two cedar-lined closets and an ensuite bath with a walk-in shower, blue-and-white tile, and handmade cabinetry. The hall bath features turquoise-and-white tile and a bathtub. The carpeted, heated and cooled enclosed former carport offers flexible bonus space for a sitting room, den, office, or hobbies. French doors provide a private exterior entrance from the driveway, while an interior doorway connects to the primary bedroom. A cedar-lined hall closet adds storage, and the full unfinished basement offers room for projects or a workshop, complete with built-in workbenches, a Fisher wood stove, a stand-up freezer, and a generous supply of firewood. Enjoy the durability of a metal roof and a newer Trane heat pump, installed in 2020.
