Description

Welcome to 209 Alex Run, where modern design, quality craftsmanship, and low-maintenance living come together in this beautifully finished new construction home by Jason Day Construction. Offering approximately 1,439 +/- square feet of finished living space, three bedrooms, two full bathrooms, one half bathroom, and an attached one-car garage, this thoughtfully designed residence brings together the comfort of a traditional home with the convenience of a more manageable lifestyle.

From the moment you arrive, the home's attractive exterior creates a striking first impression, featuring a beautiful combination of board-and-batten and horizontal siding, contrasting architectural accents, and a welcoming covered entry. Step inside to discover a bright, inviting interior where modern finishes, an open floor plan, and thoughtful attention to detail create a space that feels both stylish and comfortable.

The main level is designed for everyday living and entertaining, featuring an inviting living room with attractive flooring, recessed lighting, and a contemporary ceiling fan. The open layout flows naturally into the beautifully appointed kitchen, creating an ideal setting for everything from quiet evenings at home to gathering with friends and family.

At the heart of the home, the kitchen features crisp white cabinetry, beautiful countertops, stainless steel appliances, decorative pendant lighting, and a center island that provides additional preparation space and casual seating. The combination of natural light, modern fixtures, and carefully selected finishes gives the space a clean, timeless appeal. A conveniently located half bathroom completes the main level, adding functionality for both homeowners and guests.

Upstairs, the spacious primary suite offers a welcoming private retreat with a generous walk-in closet and ensuite bathroom featuring a double vanity and beautifully finished fixtures. Two additional bedrooms provide comfortable accommodations for family and guests, or flexibility for a home office or hobby space. A second full bathroom and conveniently located upstairs laundry area make everyday living even easier.

Step outside to enjoy one of the property's standout features: a rear deck overlooking the surrounding countryside and neighboring green space. Whether you're enjoying your morning coffee, hosting a weekend cookout, or simply unwinding after a long day, this outdoor area offers a wonderful extension of the home's living space. The outdoor area provides additional privacy and room to enjoy the outdoors.

Additional highlights include an attached one-car garage, driveway parking, modern lighting, ample storage, and the efficiency and peace of mind that come with new construction.

With its attractive architectural design, thoughtfully arranged living spaces, stylish finishes, and quality craftsmanship, this home offers an appealing alternative to traditional single-family living without sacrificing the features today's buyers appreciate.

Whether you're purchasing your first home, relocating to Northeast Tennessee, or simply looking for a more manageable lifestyle, 209 Alex Run offers the opportunity to enjoy modern comfort, beautiful surroundings, and the convenience of a brand-new home.
