Information deemed reliable but not guaranteed.

5028 Ellen Street feels like home the moment you step inside. Located in an established neighborhood, this home features 4 bedrooms, 2 bathrooms, a large eat-in kitchen, spacious living room, and a 316 sq ft den with room for hobbies, exercise equipment, and more.

Original hardwood floors remain in many rooms and tie in nicely with the floorplan this home offers. Bright, cheery kitchen with newer stainless appliances and granite countertops. Updated electrical and plumbing. Oversized laundry room with cabinets.

Natural light fills the oversized primary bedroom, which offers approx 380 sq ft and a private en suite bath. Tucked toward the rear of the home, a second bedroom offers added privacy and would work well as a home office or guest quarters. A separate entrance provides convenient access to this part of the home. Two additional bedrooms complete this one level living ranch home.

Gazebo, two sheds, a rear patio area, and rear decking bring practicality and great spaces for entertaining or soaking in the views. Plenty of room for yard toys, mowers, and more. Adjoining parcel with this home is level and a beautiful addition. The home backs to a vacant tract of land giving it an open and private feel.

Looking for vehicles to be covered? Ample room here with three carport areas available. Also convenient access to the home provided in this area makes your grocery haul a breeze.

Surrounded by mountain ranges that provide quite the show. Colorful leaves in the fall, snowcapped in the winter, and beautiful bursts of colors in the spring and summer.

This home has had updates and TLC over the years. With this amount of square footage and space to roam, you need to book your private tour. Easy access to all of Tri Cities and short drive to local lakes, Hard Rock Resort and Casino, theaters, shopping, dining, I-26/I-81, state parks, and schools.
