Description

629 Ash St is a one-story Erwin home with separate living spaces and a tree-lined yard. White cabinetry and generous counters line the kitchen, while a pass-through connects it to an additional sitting area with ceiling beams and built-in shelving. The main living room has a fireplace and windows on opposite sides, leaving space for seating and a dining area. The primary bedroom includes closet storage and an adjoining bathroom with a shower. Other bedrooms sit near a bathroom with a tub and shower combination. A paved rear patio provides outdoor seating space, and an attached carport adds covered parking.
