Description

Set on 2 acres with beautiful views of the North Fork of the Holston River, this raised ranch offers the kind of peaceful country setting that's hard to find so close to Kingsport. Although a Church Hill address with quiet surroundings, this home is still less than 10 minutes from most of the conveniences in Kingsport. Inside and out, it's ready for some loving care, but the bones are good and there's plenty of room to make it your own.

The main level has an open feel with a vaulted kitchen, dining, and living area with a brick gas fireplace, along with three bedrooms, two full baths, and a laundry closet. The primary suite offers a walk-in closet and step-in shower. Both the front and back porches are covered, giving you a couple of great spots to sit outside and enjoy the wildlife and river views.

The full unfinished basement adds even more potential. One side provides a two-car garage, while the rest offers plenty of space for storage, a workshop, hobbies, or future finished living area. A third bathroom was plumbed in the basement when the home was built in 2004, giving you an added head start if you decide to finish the space.

The home retains its original finishes and will need new flooring, paint, and some attention to the exterior and landscaping, so it's a good opportunity for someone who doesn't mind putting in some work to make it their own. With 1,450 finished square feet on the main level, a large lot, river views, garage space, and an unfinished basement with room to grow, there's a lot of potential here to create a home that fits your style and needs for years to come.
