Description

10.62 Acres with Outstanding Mountain Views in Fall Branch, Tennessee!

If you've been searching for usable acreage with beautiful long-range mountain views, this property deserves your attention! Located at 129 Coxes Springs Road, this 10.62-acre tract offers a combination of pastureland, existing improvements, and incredible views of both the Appalachian/Smoky Mountains and the Bays Mountain Range.

The property features fenced pastureland and two smaller ponds, making it suitable for livestock or a small hobby farm. At the upper portion of the property, you'll find a 12' x 32' insulated building with a breaker box started. Near the road is a 1,440-square-foot equipment shed, providing excellent storage for tractors, farm equipment, or recreational toys.

There is also an existing 690-square-foot home featuring two bedrooms and one bath, plus a 210-square-foot back porch addition. The home needs renovation and is being sold as-is, but offers potential for a rental investment, weekend getaway, or renovation project.

Additional features include a water tap at the road through the City of Kingsport and electrical service through BrightRidge.

Whether you're looking for a small farm, acreage to build your dream home, or a property with room for livestock and some of the mountain views everyone loves, this one is worth a look!
