Whether you are enjoying a quiet morning coffee on the couch, sharing a meal at the dining table, or relaxing on the back deck at sunset, this home was thoughtfully positioned and designed to showcase one of the most sought-after views in East Tennessee. Beyond the view, the location offers true convenience for lake lovers. Within just minutes of leaving the neighborhood, you will find access to a public boat launch, marina, and ample parking, making it easy to spend your days on the water and your evenings back home enjoying the peaceful mountain backdrop. Built in 2022, this home blends modern comfort with a warm, inviting design. The open floor plan creates a natural flow for gathering and entertaining, while still offering defined, functional spaces. The layout includes two bedrooms and two full bathrooms, along with a versatile bonus loft area that can serve as additional sleeping space, a home office, or a cozy retreat for guests. The main level is designed for easy living, featuring a spacious entry, dedicated laundry area, and low-entry showers for added accessibility. High-quality finishes throughout include hickory flooring and cabinetry that bring warmth and character, complemented by durable quartz countertops and a clean, modern aesthetic. A metal roof adds both longevity and low maintenance, while underground utilities help preserve the natural beauty of the surroundings. The two-car garage provides plenty of space for vehicles, lake gear, or storage, and the overall design of the home supports both full-time living and weekend retreat use.
