Description

Imagine starting your morning on the porch with a cup of coffee and mountain views stretching beyond the fields. Set on approximately 16.76 unrestricted acres in Jonesborough, Tennessee, this beautiful farm pairs open fields and mountain views with a creek and approximately 800 feet of road frontage. Whether you're looking for acreage to farm, a place to start a homestead, or a setting for the country home you've always imagined, there's room here to bring that vision to life. The property was recently surveyed, and several improvements are already in place. An installed driveway leads to the building site, where power has been installed. A well has been drilled and awaits connection, and a septic permit has already been obtained. Picture a front porch facing the mountains, a garden just steps from the kitchen, and open acreage beyond for crops or whatever you'd like to grow.

The current corn crop does not convey and is expected to be harvested prior to closing.
