Description

Come see this charming brick ranch located off Cherokee Drive in Johnson City very close to schools and ETSU. The roof and heat pump are only 4 years old. There are 3 good sized bedrooms and 1 full (recently renovated) bathroom. A good sized living room opens onto the eat-in kitchen with new flooring and is so bright and cheery. The sellers are offering a $4000 credit at closing to redo the hardwood floors as previous owner painted the beautiful and original oak hardwood black and the paint is coming off. Good size closets and a full basement for plenty of storage. New sump pump has been installed as well as an encapsulation system. The driveway was originally gravel and allowed any rainwater to seep into the ground. Due to a pavement installation in 2022 it has been known to force some water under the garage door, but this has only happened once or twice a year. This cute cottage is priced to sell and looks like a doll house inside. There will be pets in crates in the basement during any showings, so the sellers need a 30 minute lead time please.
